UNDERSTANDING IS URGED FOR BETTER WORLD

Closer Relations Pressed At Charter Presentation To Local Civic League

By LARRY DAVIS
(Mercury Staff Writer)

"The people of the world haven't learned the lesson of how to get along, how to understand and appreciate the value of each to the other."

This was the grimly frank appraisal of mankind given by Dr. Leslie Pinckney Hill, president of Cheyney State Teachers college, Delaware county, at an open meeting last night for the presentation of a charter to the Pottstown Civic league.

"And," Dr. Hill told his audience of nearly 200 at Bethany Recreation center, "the most destructive forces at work in the world today are racial prejudice and the color bar."

The Pottstown Civic league, dedicated to the objective of bettering the educational, economic, social and moral advancement of the Negro in this area, became a formal non-profit corporation with receipt of its charter from the State.

Signators to the papers of incorporation are Dr. Daniel Lee, president; the Rev. Martin Rosezelle, vice president; James H. Corum, secretary, Charles Prince, treasurer and Stoke Stitts.

THE PRESENTATION of the charter to Dr. Lee was made by Norristown Attorney Herbert C. Nelson in the presence of the organization's officers, members and a group of distinguished guests.

These included besides Dr. Hill, Burgess William A. Griffith, representing the borough; Dr. George A. McCormick, superintendent of schools; Rein DeVries, president of the Pottstown Federation of Men's Bible classes, and Shandy Hill, general manager of The Mercury.

SPEAKING ON the subject "Getting Along Together", Dr. Hill reminded his audience that education is the force behind racial prejudice.

Education, he said, has paved the way for the accomplishment of marvelous things. "We have unlocked the secrets of nature. We have developed the most cunning machines. We have invented instruments of destruction.

"What is it we have not done in nature?" he asked. "There are no longer any oceans nor any mountains."

DR. HILL asserted that the one thing man has not learned is how he can live with his neighbor. In a sweeping denunciation of man's failure to understand himself, the speaker said the "whole world is feverishly engaged in the manufacture of war instruments to destroy one another."

It is the erroneous belief of men, Dr. Hill went on, that they are preparing a defense and that the philosophy of defense is that "I must defend myself against you". Consequently, men are moving farther and farther apart.

Dr. Hill made an open approach to the matter of race prejudice which he identified as

School Seniors Are Tested for Job Fitness

It may look like a game, but these Pottstown Senior High school seniors mean business. Their ability to run these tests can make the difference between a successful job or drudgery. Jane Adams, 1107 Grove avenue, is testing her finger dexterity, while William Embody, 325 Manatawny street, is getting the right peg in its proper hole. Known as general aptitude tests, the examinations help determine job fitness. They are being given to the students—all potential job seekers—by the Pennsylvania State Employment service.

2 WOMEN HURT IN AUTO MISHAPS

Minor Injuries Suffered By Pair of Accidents In Boyertown Vicinity

Two women were injured slightly in two automobile accidents in the Boyertown area yesterday.

Ethel Day, Boyertown RD, suffered a slight injury to her left shoulder early in the morning when a car driven by her brother, Earl M. Day, collided with a dump truck at the intersection of East Fourth and North Franklin streets, Boyertown.

Late last night, Mildred Hamel, 22, of 337 West Fourth street, suffered a laceration over the left temple and one of the left ear in an accident on Route 262 near the Manatawny creek.

The operator of the dump truck involved in the collision with the Day car was Henry Bartholomew, 400 East Fourth street, Boyertown. The truck is owned by Charles Gabel, Boyertown quarry operator.

Day was driving east on Fourth street, Boyertown, while Bartholomew was driving south on North Franklin street in that borough, when the accident occurred at the intersection at 7 a. m.

The Day car spun completely around facing the opposite direction of travel and wound up on the sidewalk, against the home of Charles Stauffer.

Early Rains, Cloudiness Forecast for Today

V's of honking geese, a surer sign of Winter than frost on the pumpkin, flew over the Pottstown area yesterday.

At 5:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Max Christ, Boyertown RD 2, counted 76 geese, "honking like the dickens," flying dead south over his place.

Another big, wavering V winged high over the eastern part of the borough at about the same time, headed a little east of south.

The cooler weather they presaged will be here tomorrow along with blue skies, the weatherman said. Today, though, will see scattered morning showers and partly cloudy this afternoon.

67 Area Draftees To Take Physicals

Sixty-seven Pottstown area men will take their pre-induction physical examinations at the Schuylkill arsenal, Philadelphia, tomorrow morning.

This group, the largest to be given physicals since the beginning of the Korean war, will report to the borough hall office of Local Board 110 at 6:30 a. m. Fifty minutes later, the men will board a train at the Reading station for Philadelphia.

Although the 67-man group is the largest to leave for physicals since the war began in Korea, it is little better than one-tenth the size of the largest in World War II.

R. Ross Longaker, clerk of Local Board 110, recalled that one shipment of men for pre-induction physicals totaled 600 men.

They were sent for their examinations in two groups on two successive days, he said.

Longaker released the names of the 67 men yesterday, but said that they could give only their general addresses, listing as borough or non-borough residents.

FROM POTTSTOWN, those men listed in current directories are:

Joseph Sikora, 1106 Center avenue; Christopher J. Hollenbach 3d, North Hanover street; Eugene M. Stofko, 211 North Keim street; John C. Graves, 915 South street; John J. Celani, 14½ West Fourth street; Wesley E. Bartholomew, 576 Jefferson avenue; Arlen R. Saylor, 1379 Queen street; Richard D. Reigner, 173 North Franklin street.

Also, Anthony Z. Golden, 338 King street; Raymond R. Grimm 1115 Sembling avenue; Joseph C. Arters, 13 Plum street; Gerald Kerr, 343 Laurel street; John H. Longaker Jr., 500 North Franklin street; Stanley D. Cimino, 368 Cherry street; Charles Eslicker, 32 Chestnut street; William J. McFarland, 437 North York street.

Also, Edward J. Poster, 403 South street; Frederick C. Wilson, 1084 South street; William G. Linton, 451 King street; Raymond E. Mauger, 756 Grant street; Milton E. Yohn, 39 East Third street; Charles A. Spielman, 941 Queen street; Charles R. Hayer, 176 Manatawny street; Edward A. Ottaviano, 441 Cherry street; Thomas Viattas,

Detective Work Clears Snag to Grading Start

Sleuthing as well as scraping was required yesterday as borough workmen began the job of grading the former site of the opera house, which will be made into a parking lot adjacent to borough hall.

There were more than a dozen cars on the lot late Tuesday afternoon when Walter Runyan, borough street foreman, and his crew finished preliminary work, leaving the big saw-horse barriers in place when they left.

Borough hall office workers reported that this number had dwindled to a half dozen by 5 p. m., when they re-straightened the barriers for the night.

But by morning yesterday, determined all-night parkers had infiltrated behind the lines. And when work was set to start, the crew was faced with the problem of finding a dozen owners and having them remove their cars.

Runyan said he and his amateur manhunters soon turned the job over to Motor Patrolman Earl J. Rhoads and Desk Sgt. Irvin K. Frederick.

THEY CONTACTED most of the owners by looking up their license numbers in police books and simply telephoning them.

A knottier problem was posed by the last car, that of Leonard H. Donmoyer. The telephone was disconnected at his listed address of 132 Walnut street. Rhoads went to

Polio Case Curbs Pennsburg Sports

All athletic activities in the Pennsburg schools will be discontinued indefinitely because of the danger of polio, it was announced yesterday by William G. Moser, supervising principal.

The schools will remain open.

These decisions were reached Tuesday night at a special meeting of the borough's school board.

The meeting was prompted by the polio case contracted by Geraldine Gaugler, a Seventh grade student in the high school, who was admitted Monday to Montgomery hospital, Norristown.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Gaugler Jr., Pottstown avenue, Pennsburg, the 12-year-old girl was continuing her rapid recovery yesterday from what a hospital spokesman termed a "very mild" case.

Moser said that Miss Gaugler had not been in the school since Oct. 3 and that hers has been the only case reported in the school.

THE DECISION on athletics meant the postponement of the football game between Pennsburg and West Pottsgrove High schools, which had been scheduled for Saturday at Pennsburg. Another contest called off was the girls' hockey game at Royersford, scheduled for today.

Moser said there were two main reasons for the discontinuance of athletics:

1. To prevent students from mingling with those of other schools. "We want to prevent not only carrying the danger of polio to other schools but to prevent their carrying it to us," Moser asserted.
2. To keep children from becoming "run down" from strenuous activity.

Longtime school employes said it was the first time in their memories that such a step had been necessary.

Moser said the board members agreed quickly on the need for the step at the special meeting.

The Pennsburg schools are all in one building, with the elementary school downstairs and the high school upstairs.

POLICE SIGNALS REMAIN DEAD

Lights, Horn Don't Work, Nor Does New Gadget Installed in City Hall

Three police signal lights and the police signal horn remained dormant yesterday and last night as a new gadget which fascinated policemen put in an appearance.

The three red lights, all on High street at the Washington, Keim and Hanover intersections, and the horn at High and Hanover streets have been out of commission since Wednesday.

The signals are turned on at borough hall when the desk sergeant wants a patrolman or a motor patrolman in the radioless patrol car to call headquarters.

William H. Price, borough electrician, said he hoped to have the system working soon.

The past week, when he was finishing new lines for all High street call boxes, he admitted that, through an error, the signal lights and signal horn had been deadened.

THE GADGET INSTALLED yesterday on the police desk at borough hall is to be the new switch for the system. It was the chief topic of police conversation last night.

It amounts to an oblong piece of planking 8 inches long attached to the front of the desk. On the plank are a 25-watt bulb, a small knife switch and a little push-button.

"We have been pulling that handle, but it still won't give coffee," quipped one police onlooker.

When the switch is thrown, the bulb turns a dull orange color. It is supposed to illuminate the three red signal lights. As yet, it doesn't.

The button, when pushed, also is

8 Area Groups Proudly Display Fire Apparatus

The oldest and the newest fire engines in the Pottstown area were among the 22 pieces of apparatus ranged along High street last night in the highlight of the borough's participation in Fire Prevention Week.

The fire fighting machines and uniformed crews came from eight local and area companies. They were parked on the north side of High street between the Strand theater and Hanover street for an hour and a half after 7 o'clock.

At one end of the long line of polished engines was the Sanatoga Fire company's tanker-pumper, so new that not all the gold and black lettering has yet been painted onto its flanks.

The 1300-gallon tanker, specially built for rural blazes where water supply many times is unavailable, was received Sept. 16. It was driven to its first fire Monday night.

Firemen, especially, were interested in the Sanatoga engine but the crowd stopper was the 70-year-old horse-drawn, hand-operated pumper the Gilbertsville Fire company brought to the exhibition.

To the particular delight of a group of 25 children, Gilbertsville firemen shot 50-foot streams of water from the antique's hose nozzle repeatedly during the demonstration.

The wood-bodied pumper, first pumper owned by the company, was lovingly reconditioned the past year by the firemen and is taken to demonstrations everywhere.

Parochial Students Are Given Holiday For Columbus Day

Pottstown parochial school pupils will observe the 358th anniversary of Columbus' discovery of America today with a holiday from classes.

Both St. Aloysius and St. Peter's Parochial schools will be closed. Banks and State offices also will shutter their doors, but Federal employes will continue to work as usual.

The Columbus Day holiday began for pupils at St. Peter's school yesterday morning with a series of playlets and recitations. Each class took part in the celebration.

A short talk on the significance of the day was given by the Rev. John Naja, rector of the church.

SINCE THE HOLIDAY is not recognized nationally but is recognized by the State, only State offices and banks will close. According to Lamar Missimer, deputy collector, the Bureau of Internal

UAW PRESIDENT ALSO CALLS FOR FIGHT ON REDS

Musmanno Shares Stage Before Audience of 1000, Flays Republican Record

By EDWARD B. ROSENBERG
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Walter P. Reuther, vice president of the CIO and president of the United Auto Workers (CIO), called for a continuing fight against "the reactionaries who have tried to obstruct us all along the road to progress," in the Pottstown Senior High school auditorium last night.

He spoke before 1000 persons at a rally sponsored by the Montgomery County CIO Political Action committee.

In addition to the labor leader's talk, the near-capacity audience heard Judge Michael A. Musmanno, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor of Pennsylvania, warn that a Republican victory on election day would harm labor and the nation.

Judge Musmanno

"They are determined, these Republican leaders," charged Musmanno, "to wipe off the statute books those measures passed to help the workingman. If the Republican party should take over Pennsylvania and then the nation, this country will enter into such a depression as it has never before seen."

* * *

IN AN HOUR-LONG talk, Reuther ranged over the importance of voting, the fight against Communism, the records of the Democratic and Republican parties, the need for an excess profits tax and "billions for war but only a few drops for the people in peacetime."

He began and ended, however, emphasizing the importance of mobilizing all the voters.

Near the beginning of his speech, Reuther declared, "I've been trying to tell people that politics is not the politicians' business, it is everybody's business."

And just before he ended, he said, "In America, if we can work

E. V. Hunter Workers To Vote Oct. 24 on TWU Representation

The third election at a Pottstown area textile mill to decide whether the workers will join the Textile Workers Union of America (CIO) was set yesterday for Oct. 24 at the E. V. Hunter corporation mills, Stowe.

The TWU won its first National Labor Relations board election in Pottstown the past Sept. 12, shortly after its organizing drive here opened, when employes of Vaughan Knitting company voted 2-1 in favor of the TWU as collective bargaining agent.

The TWU won its second election by a 7-1 margin Tuesday at the Century-Beverly corporation.

Date for the third election was arranged yesterday morning at a meeting in the Stowe mills by an NLRB examiner, Bernard Samoff, Philadelphia, and representatives of management and the TWU.

The election will be held between 3 and 4 p. m.

Representing the corporation was E. V. Hunter, president and treasurer; J. Harold Yocom, secretary, and Attorney William A. O'Donnell Jr. Representing the TWU was Morris Riger, assistant regional director, and Samuel Frost, international representative.

Pet Nanny Gets Climbing Fever, Starts a Search

Percy E. Ricketts, 709 Lincoln avenue, who got a nanny goat as a pet Tuesday, was assured early yesterday morning that she could climb.

She began her first full day as a pet by climbing out of the window in the stable-like building where Ricketts kept her.

It was not certain at first when she climbed out or where she went. There were unconfirmed reports she had been seen as far away from home as six blocks.

At about 7 o'clock, 15-year-old Robert Means, 660 Jefferson avenue, sighted the goat by his front yard. Getting a chain and collar from a neighbor, Harry A. Miller, 652 Jefferson avenue, the 15-year-old gave chase.

He finally caught her but not before she had climbed the precipitous slope of the borough water basin at Washington Hill road and Adams street.

He turned the goat over to 10-year-old Richard Burton, grandson of Ricketts, who with Ricketts had been chasing her, too. As if to make up for the escapade, she came through with her first quart of milk.

BIBLE, FLOWERS HOLD HIS INTEREST

Rev. Nyce Still Active at 81

Preaching, studying the Bible and raising flowers are still the major interests in the life of the Rev. William G. Nyce, pastor of the Harmonyville Church of the Brethren, as he marks his 81st birthday today.

He preaches there every Sunday, as he has for 44 years and 11 months; he studies the Bible to teach his men's Bible class and prepare his sermons, but his gardening he has had to curtail.

The Rev. Nyce began raising dahlias to augment the small salary of a rural preacher, and at the height of his flower-raising career he had 50 varieties of the popular flower and 1000 bushes in the field across Harmonyville road from his comfortable, nine-room home.

Now, he confines himself to 25 beds of hardy perennials, like delphinium, chrysanthemums, hardy phlox, hardy asters, dianthus and peonies.

"I've got lots of friends and they come from as far as Reading," said the Rev. Nyce.

HIS MAJOR LOVE, as it has been since he was ordained on Jan. 1, 1900, is his congregation. "They're like children to us," the minister declared.

"We have no conflicting interests, no contention of any kind. There's an unusual interest in Bible study, which is gratifying to me, and the people here are liberal although they're in limited circumstances."

The Rev. Nyce and his wife, the former Lena Keim, of Harmonyville, take charge of the activities of the small church (the congregation numbers 65, but it was smaller when he became pastor).

They both teach, and Mrs. Nyce also leads the village women in quilting, an occupation that has kept them busy every Wednesday for two generations and that has produced 1000 quilts.

THE PLAIN STONE church has been modernized with electricity, an oil burner, furnishings for the primary class and the women's Bible class, and two pianos since the Rev. Nyce came to Harmonyville.

Making quilts has not only helped church missions and charities, but has aided at home. Soon, for example, the church will be repainted, thanks to the efforts of Mrs. Nyce's sewing group.

The Rev. Nyce was describing his work with flowers when he made the remark, "You can do a great deal in a small space."

But he might have applied the remark with equal meaning to the work he has done in the church during the past half-century.

East Coventry Civilian Defense Group Formulating Final Organizational Plans

Plans for the implementation of projects and the completion of its organization are being made by the East Coventry civilian defense committee, A. F. Malenke Jr., deputy defense director, announced last night.

A meeting of the group will be called soon, he added, to round out the organization and to complete staff assignments and projects.

Already active as a group, the committee has begun several projects to facilitate its work. At a recent meeting at the East Coventry Control center, Parkerford, work has begun on the educational, medical and evacuation aspects of civilian defense, Malenke said.

Plans were made to have school teachers instruct their pupils in actions to be taken in the event of an air raid.

Preston Murray, communications chief of the committee, reported he would begin looking for siren warning facilities for use in an air raid. A project is underway to make a small electric siren which could be amplified over the outdoor public address system of the Parkerford Brethren church.

PERMISSION HAS been granted by the church to use its public address system for this purpose. The Brethren church, along with Bethel Methodist church, Brownback's Reformed church and the Parkerford Baptist church, has offered its facilities for emergencies.

The Ridge Fire company also has offered its building as an emergency shelter in the event of mass evacuations, while the township school will be used as a medical center. It is planned to set up ten beds in each of the churches and the schools if it becomes necessary to handle medical cases from evacuated cities.

Mrs. Alvia W. White, a registered nurse, who is chief of the medical and medical evacuation staff, has asked resident physicians and nurses in the township to register with the civilian defense committee, Malenke went on to say. In an emergency, civilian defense personnel in the control center will be able to obtain a physician in a minimum amount of time by consulting the list, he explained.

TWO-WAY RADIO communication already is available through the efforts of Murray, Malenke continued, while a 25-man auxiliary police force will be set up under Robert H. Hoppe, security officer.

Aiding the committee in the formation of its plans was Daniel J. C. O'Donnell, Phoenixville, Chester county coordinator of civil defense. O'Donnell attended the meeting to help work out the problems confronting the group.

Serving on the committee are Malenke, deputy director; Harry S. Mull, executive officer; Mrs. Alfred Shantz, education and welfare director; Hoppe, security chief; Murray, communications chief; W. W. Zollers, utilities and transportation officer; Mrs. White, medical and medical evacuation officer; William Jones, evacuation, dispersal and repatriation director, and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Ridge Fire company as auxiliary members.

While most of Korea's mineral wealth is in the northern part of the country, several minerals are found in large quantities only in the south.

A criminal is a person with predatory instincts who has not sufficient capital to form a corporation. — Howard Scott.

The Fight for Tolerance

ANOTHER landmark of progress was erected last night when the Pottstown Civic league received its charter in Bethany Recreation center.

The purpose of the Pottstown Civic league, according to its charter application, is:

"To provide cooperative facilities in order to create, initiate, sponsor and promote educational, religious, civic, recreational and economic activities for the assistance, development and betterment of the community."

It is a lofty purpose, which boiled down resolves itself merely into that historical proverb: "In union there is strength."

Union is brotherhood. In racial and religious prejudice there is no brotherhood, there is no union, there is only weakness, and weakness means ultimate disintegration and the loss of freedom for all.

Group prejudice is a disease of the mind, a disease of the heart, a disease of the soul. A truly healthy citizenry has no group prejudice. Fortunately for us all, the group prejudice disease may be cured forever by our own sense of justice, our own sense of decency, our own sense of right.

The Pottstown Civic league can make tolerance a fighting word and can do much to spreading brotherhood in this community.

Friday, the 13th

TOMORROW is Friday, the 13th.

Whenever that coincidence of day and date rolls around, large numbers of the reading public usually look for the public prints to come up with some discussion, learned or flippant, on the variety, origins, etc. of Friday-the-13th superstitions and related follies.

Dutifully we sent for a new book on folkways and superstitions. It turned out to be about 3 inches thick with large-size pages, at least 9 inches by 12. It was a weighty volume, in pounds and ounces if not in thoughts.

After poring over pages and pages of things to do and not to do on this date, our advice to those who think this Friday is any worse than any other Friday—or any other day, for that matter—is: Go home and go to bed.

(Knowing darn well that some superstitious reader is going to come up with an airtight reason why bed is the very worst place in the world to spend Friday the 13th.)

Up To You

CONGRESS has given the President sweeping stand-by controls over the economy—including the authority to impose rationing and wage and price controls if he finds them necessary. The bill, as passed, actually gave the President a great deal more authority in this direction than he had requested.

Now it remains to be seen if the major controls will be placed in effect—and here is where the public, through its actions, will have a strong voice in the matter.

It has been said ten thousand times that there is no reason whatsoever for hoarding and scare-buying. It should be repeated ten thousand times more. American industry and agriculture can meet all foreseeable military needs and still provide the civilian population with all the necessities and most of the luxuries.

Moreover, we have a distribution machine fully capable of keeping up with the production machine. It is made up of the thousands of American retail stores—large and small, chain and independent. It can make sure that goods of all kinds will be made available to us at fair prices. But hoarding, on a large enough scale, could defeat this end. And then the black market would return, and the racketeer would assume more and more of the functions of the legitimate merchant.

The American factory, the American farm, and the American store can equitably deal with any conceivable supply problem. They can do it without onerous controls which, in the long run, would hurt us all—if the people will intelligently cooperate.

Editor, The Mercury,
Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by the papers where someone has leveloped a new movie camera which is 1000 times faster than those now in use. It won't work! There's no way of increasing the consumption of popcorn and candy bars!

A divorce was granted a Chicagoan when he told the court his wife had thrown a shoe, a knife, a miniature of a dog and a mirror at him. She sure had a dandy change of pace!

And say: Bright colored shoes for men is the newest fashion forecast. This will allow the playboy to start for work in one red shoe and the other green!

Hopin' you air the same,

Readers Give Reactions to Wild Toots of Fire Horn

All Awakened, Including Dog

To the Editor: From comments I read in The Mercury, the only people who were awakened by those wild blasts of the fire horn Sunday morning were those who lived near Washington Hill.

This is untrue. I arose in my bed the first time that horn went off and every time thereafter.

Our two children were awakened, too, on the one morning of the week when we hope they will sleep.

To top it all off, the neighbor's dog who is particularly fond of mocking horns and train whistles, howled like an echo every time the siren sounded.

I just thought you and the borough of Pottstown would like to know what an uncomfortable morning I spent, fully three-quarters of a mile from that unholy horn on Washington Hill.

Pottstown R. R. S.

Should Be in Church

To the Editor: Those who complained about not getting sleep Sunday morning because of the fire horn should be ashamed of themselves.

Sunday is the day of the Lord and you can't give him his just dues by lying in bed.

Let those persons attend church and they won't hear the fire horn.

'Closed Corporation'

To the Editor: Never since I have lived in Pottstown have I seen a school board that made so much of a closed corporation out of the puolic business as this one we have now.

The board has clearly demonstrated that some of its members are in their jobs only for their own personal advancement and financial betterment.

I have nothing against Mr. (Leonard A.) Hiltwine. As far as I know, he has been a conscientious official. But the fact that the job of school board secretary is passed to him is sure-fire evidence that the board doesn't want any "strangers" butting into their affairs—even if the "stranger" may be a man who would be better qualified to handle the work than Mr. Hiltwine or anyone else on the board.

Furthermore, there are capable men in Pottstown who are in better need of the money and the job.

It was sickening to read that the school board praised the late Mr. (Ralph P.) Holloway so highly and immediately turned around and cut his job in half. They want to give a good share of the work to a superintendent of schools who has been in Pottstown only a few months.

We don't forget, either, how the school board voted to give more money to Earl Reidenouer for his treasurer's job and how the ungrateful Mr. Reidenouer turned around and tried to kick out all the school employes who reached 62.

Yes, Mr. Editor, you can tell your readers for me that the administration of Pottstown schools has become tied up in a tight little political clique, interested only in personal heroics and selfish aims.

Pottstown W. D. T.

Sign of Modern Age

To the Editor: How our civilization has progressed! But it is still a dangerous world, as was proved by your news article on the boy who set fire to the mattress with a cigaret lighter.

There was a day when a box of those old-fashioned kitchen matches, with which mom used to light the wicks on the oil stove, were the most dangerous things to have in a house with children.

Why, occasionally a rat would get gnawing on the phosphorous heads of those torches and set things blazing in good style.

Nowadays, in this mechanical age, a four-year-old knows how to operate a cigaret lighter. Not only does a box of matches hold no interest for him, he probably wouldn't know where to find one.

WARDEN, DO YOUR DUTY!

WASHINGTON

D. C. Negroes Increase To Halt Franchise Move

By ROGER WARREN
(Ray Tucker is on a vacation.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11—When the Bureau of the Census completes and releases the racial break-down of the population of the District of Columbia some time between now and the end of the year, it is expected to show a large increase in both the number and percentages of Negroes.

The blunt consequence of this situation is that votes for residents of the District are further away than ever. The potential number of Negro voters would be so large that it would be a dominant factor in local politics. Southern Congressmen may be expected to filibuster until the Potomac freezes over to prevent residents of the capital from ever having the vote.

MIGRATION: The increase in the ratio of Negroes in the capital has been caused by a migration of white families to suburbs and a migration of Negro families into the District.

During and immediately after World War II, as those who were stationed there then will recall, Washington was one of the most jammed cities of the country. Houses were subdivided and the subdivisions subdivided. Basements were converted into apartments. Hundreds slept every night in hotel lobbies and Union Station.

With the end of the war, Washington, like most major cities, was treated to enormous building projects in its suburbs. Most of this building was put up in nearby Virginia and Maryland. Thousands of acres of farm land were dug up to make space for foundations for apartments and small homes.

JOBS: White families now occupy most of these new homes and apartments. Many dwellings have been rented and sold to newcomers from Missouri and other states, but most of them have gone to people moving outside of the District lines.

As these people moved out of old, cramped and run-down quarters, Negro families moved in. There has been some new building for Negro families, but the total units are small compared with the number that have moved into the capital city.

Government jobs, plus the availability of some kind of living quarters, have fostered a large migration of Negroes from the Southern states. In moving from another state to Washington, a colored man or woman loses the right to vote, which he or she may never have exercised anyway.

If one can get a government job, he enjoys equal pay for equal work with other employes, short hours, usually air-conditioned working space, protection of the Civil Service Commission and other advantages. The increase in Negroes in government jobs provides opportunities for others in operating stores and services catering to them.

Washington is also a leading educational center for Negroes and many families move to the capital so their children can attend special schools and colleges.

VOTES: Curiously, as the Negroes move into the District and lose their votes, those families, mostly white, who move to the Virginia and Maryland countryside gain the franchise. The fact that a move across the line again makes a man or woman a voting citizen may be a contributing factor to the migration.

The size of the dual migration is indicated by the preliminary Census figures on the total population. The population of the District itself rose from 663,091 in 1940 to 792,234 in 1950, an increase of 19 percent.

The population of the metropolitan area outside the District lines rose from 304,894 in 1940 to 660,115 in 1950, an increase of 119 percent. In other words, that part of the metropolitan area outside the District is now almost as large in population as the District itself ten years ago.

Both the district and surrounding areas are due for a further increase soon. Requests by government agencies for additional personnel to meet the present emergency provide for approximately 20,000 new jobs. About half of these would be in Washington.

The Voice of Broadway

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

Broadway Grapevine

JOHNNY MERCER'S NEW musical is a satirical thrust at the burlesque end of show business. He'll do both lyrics and tunes . . . Joe DiMaggio's ex-wife, Dorothy Arnold Schubert, is talking to her lawyers. She lost a large sum of money in the shuffle of shedding her most recent husband, would like to get it back . . . The Allan Lowells of "Kiss Me Kate" are knitting tiny garments.

Princess Alexandra

When New York newsmen call ex-Mayor O'Dwyer on the long distance phone the only thing he'll talk about is the weather. Any other subject draws a "no comment" . . . Friends are hoping ex-King Peter of Yugoslavia and his Alexandra will reconcile. They're talking over the possibility in Paris at the moment . . .

Jean Parker's ex-husband, Curt Gotter, will waltz down the aisle with Dorothy Ford . . . Cara Williams' newest excitement is Jerry Saffron, a wealthy local lad.

HELEN HAYES' MOTHER, Catherine Hayes Brown, was eager to see her celebrated daughter make her television debut as Queen Victoria on the program, "Showtime, U. S. A." But when Mrs. Brown arrived at the studio just before air time she discovered she had lost her ticket, and the ushers refused to admit her. She did see the program, however—watched it from the bar of the Forrest Hotel, surrounded by prizefighters and race track characters! . . .

Greater baseball enthusiasm hath no man: Phil Silvers flew 'in from Minneapolis to see the first game of the World Series, even though he opens soon in St. Louis. He rehearses his songs with his accompanist on the long distance telephone . . .

Add screen dialogue which will fracture Brooklyn Dodger fans. This is a line from the forthcoming Warner film, "The Folsom Story": "The pressure will be applied until Mr. Rickey has a coronary."

MARY MARGARET McBride's deal with WJZ calls for a big uppage in wages and network TV shows as well as her local radio stint. (Incidentally, Faye Emerson was offered Mary Margaret's spot on NBC, but couldn't get her current sponsor's okay—and at that point her ex-mother-in-law, Mrs. F. D. R., nabbed the chatter spot) . . . Bob Sterling is looking for a Broadway part so he can leave Hollywood—he's that unhappy about his broken romance with Beverly Stoner . . .

The poor Don Cossack Chorus! They've been touring this country successfully for years—now suddenly they've been cancelled out of first one city and then another, because of the prevailing anti-Communist sentiment. What some communities don't realize is that the Don Cossacks are White Russians—left Russia during the 1917 Revolution because they were enemies of communism, and are all American citizens. Six are ex-GI's, two wear the Purple Heart, and none of them thinks Joe Stalin is a swell fellow.

Shirley Ballard, one of the four cuties promoting Columbia's "Petty Girl" musical, will return to New York instead of to Filmtown when the tour is concluded. Romance and Broadway is the potent combination beckoning her to Manhattan.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

FRANK J., 49, is a physician friend of mine.

"Dr. Crane, what did you think of the orchestra tonight?" he asked me, after we had attended a movie with our wives and stopped for refreshments afterwards.

"Oh, it sounded about average to me. How did you like it?" I reversed his question.

"Well, these musicians who think that acrobatics can make up for harmony, make me tired!" he responded caustically. "If I want to view gymnasts, I'll go to the circus.

"And did you notice that medley of Stephen Foster's songs, played with variations?

"Why do these witwit second raters always insist on trying to vary good music that was produced by men who really knew their stuff?

"If he is simply trying to vary the great works of men whom he isn't fit to associate with, then he ought to get out of the field entirely.

"Is it simply egotism that makes musicians try to change the established masterpieces of great composers?"

THE PSYCHOLOGY of music is a fascinating subject. Frank has passed the age of 40, so his melodic interests do not coincide with those of young people.

For, as we grow older, our actions slow down. We change from fox trot to waltz tempo.

Without realizing it fully, therefore, our tastes change, too, and we begin to hold higher regard for the music of the past.

Conversely, we are less inclined to enjoy the innovations in modern music.

Theater and dance orchestras usually try to keep pace with the trend of the times, however, so the older generation often disdains their music.

Nowadays, some of our leading orchestras think they must act as vaudeville comedians and acrobats, as well as the purveyors of melody.

In their competitive desire to surpass rival orchestras, they may spend weeks hatching up freak ideas, instead of good music.

Knowing the American public's constant hunger for something new and different, they try to jazz up the old favorites or render established melodies with such variations that neither the emasculated melodies nor the variations have much harmonic value.

But at least they are new! That seems to be the god of all too many orchestras.

The primary purpose of music is to serve as a melodic Pegasus on which our thoughts may soar from the mundane worries of everyday living to a realm of ecstacy and emotional delight.

But many of the noisy, blatant modern orchestrations remind us of anything but Pegasus.

In an age already noted for being too noisy, many modern orchestras simply try to raise the ante by quantitatively exceeding the screeches of forge and factory, elevated railway or subway train.

Children seem to enjoy noise far more than do their elders, however, so we often have temporary juvenile phases in the development of music.

He soon began making violins under his own name, and in 1684, began to produce larger models and beautifying them in various details. His "long" patterns represented a complete innovation in the proportions of the instrument. He also made some beautiful violoncellos. His method of violin making created a standard for subsequent times. Many of his instruments are in use today, and possession of one is a rare privilege as they bring enormous prices. He died in 1737. Who was he?

ALL AROUND THE TOWN

Chickens Get Around... Doehler Lad to Colors...

★ HARDY CHICK — There is—or more probably, was—a chicken in Pottstown with some of the spirit that dwelled in the Pony Express riders. The Bickel family of North Coventry are still talking about it. The incident which exposed this chicken's remarkable abilities occurred a couple of weeks ago. George Bickel, of Pottstown RD 1, a welder, had stopped his flat-bodied welder's truck at the farm of his brother, James, near Coventry Brethren church. He keeps his acetylene and oxygen tanks there. The welder loaded some of the tanks into the back of the truck and drove off for Pottstown, three miles away. . . .

ON THE WAY he made two stops. When he reached the borough, he parked the truck next to George Dwyer's barber shop on Hanover street and went into Bentz's drug store for a cup of coffee. When he emerged a few minutes later the first thing that checked his gaze was a chicken—black and yellow, weighing approximately seven pounds—sitting on the top of the truck body. One look convinced Bickel that it was one of his brother's chickens. It had ridden into town on his truck. But where? Not in the cab. And not on the body—there had been no chicken when he finished loading and drove off. . . . .

★ THE ONLY explanation the welder could reach was that the chicken rode the rear axle for those bumpy three miles. "It must have roosted on the axle and stuck on," was the story he was sticking by. Dispelling the initial shock over this achievement, Bickel made a grab for the bird. It evaded him, however, and flapped off down Hanover street, clucking excitedly. The last Bickel saw of it, the chicken was running dangerously through High street traffic. He did not follow, figuring his neck was more valuable than the chicken's.

RESERVIST—Frank Thomas Swist, 433 South street, a zinc cleaner at Doehler-Jarvis corporation's plant, left by train yesterday for Camp Campbell, Ky., to join the medics of the 11th Airborne division as Pfc. Swist. He has been in the inactive Army reserve since he finished a two-year enlistment the past July 24. He was stationed in Virginia with the Transportation corps. He passed his Army physical three weeks ago and was ordered to active duty two weeks ago. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Swist, 433 South street. . . . Weitzenkorn's the High street clothiers, is another Pottstown store staging an expansion program. Its walls are bulging now with a new department added to the already progressive outfit.

★ THIS MECHANICAL AGE — Mrs. C. Rudolph Kulp, of near Kenilworth, is a farmer's wife who gets the most out of rural electrification. Years ago, she said, she read about shelling peas and lima beans in the wringer of a washing machine. But until this year she never tried it. Then, this Summer the Kulps had none of the Puerto Rican laborers of other years to harvest their heavy crop of truck vegetables. Mountains of podded peas piled up before Mrs. Kulp got up the nerve to replace scivvies with peas in the wringer. It worked like a charm, she said. You could put handfuls in at a time—with the peas falling down one side, pods on the others. Then came lima bean season. The situation was worse. Her husband made a promise—if the wringer trick didn't work he would help shell limas, something he is not generally agog to do. She tried it again. This time, because of the heavier pod, only one lima pod at a time could be serviced. But it cut the time about in half anyway. "I'm so pleased with that washing machine," was Mrs. Kulp's endorsement.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

CANCER of the large bowel and rectum is much less treacherous than other forms of this dread disease. In other words, it causes symptoms which should call attention to it early enough to permit a cure.

It is most unfortunate that these warning symptoms should so often go unheeded. That they do is witnessed by medical statistics which show an average delay of more than six months between the appearance of symptoms and the seeking of treatment. At one clinic where a large number of such cases were studied, this delay amounted to 14 months.

The important early symptoms indicating cancer of the large bowel are the presence of blood in the bowel movements, and changes in the character of the bowel movements. Pain appears later along with loss of appetite, loss of weight, and weakness. Sometimes the earliest symptoms are associated with bloating and excessive gas formation in the bowel.

It must be remembered that cancer of the lower bowel is not limited to older persons. It may occur in the young. Routine health examinations should be carried out at least once a year. A rectal examination should be included. Following the rectal examination, the lower bowel should be examined with a proctoscope, a tube-like instrument with a light, by means of which the physician can examine the lining membrane of the bowel directly. Then X-ray studies are carried out. In making the X-ray examination, a suspension of barium is injected into the lower bowel, through the rectal opening. Air also may be injected into the lower bowel following the use of the barium enema to give clear x-ray plates.

There are certain types of growths, known as polyps, which occur on the lining membrane. These so often serve as a starting point of bowel cancer and they should be removed when found.

It has also been noted that cancer of the rectum may be more likely to develop in persons who have such things as hemorrhoids or piles, and fissures which are cracks in the lining membrane.

Nobody should ignore symptoms such as those mentioned, since they may indicate the presence of bowel cancer. By seeking the advice of a physician immediately, an individual who suffers in this way may save his life.

Seventh Graders Display Curios In Indian Study

By JOAN WOOD

Seventh grade, Section 221, has been studying about the Indians of North America in history class. Mrs. Pearson thought it would be nice to make or bring articles concerning Indians. The class thought this was a good idea, too.

An interesting feature was a bark house, complete with an Indian in front of the house grinding corn in the typical Indian way. This was made by Robert Newman.

Another feature was an Indian head-dress with real feathers made by Norman Wisler. Joel Landis had an interesting display of arrow heads that were found in this section of the country.

Fred Smith brought an Indian mask made of paper towels that he made last year.

Frances Hausmann made an Indian village arranged on a paper plate. It had tiny tepees around a make-believe fire.

Some of the children drew Indian pictures and they were arranged around the bulletin boards by Joan Daniels.

Souvenirs were brought by many of the boys and girls. Some of them were: an Indian canoe, Indian tepees, tom-toms, jewelry, a papoose, moccasins, a doll, Indian head plaques, sea shells and beads.

Joan Wood had charge of arranging the display.

Magician Enthralls Seventh, Eighth Grade

By ANGELINE RINALDI

Pupils of the Seventh and Eighth grades of Junior High school were held spellbound as Everett Duncan, assembly artist, performed feats of magic in the auditorium Oct. 5.

Influenced by an uncle, who was also a magician, Mr. Duncan became interested in magic at the age of seven. However, his uncle did not help him a great deal after he got started.

Mr. Duncan knows through experience that when a magician makes a mistake, it is very embarrassing. He invents many of his own tricks. Although he has been doing this sort of work for more than 25 years, he still enjoys it very much.

Jayvees and Midgets Win Opening Games

By CARL KOWALSKI and RUSSELL MYERS

The Junior Varsity and the Midget football teams opened the season Friday, Oct. 6, on Franklin Field, when both scored victories against Coatesville opposition. The Jayvees won by an overpowering score of 27-0, while the Midgets turned back Coatesville, 6-0.

The star of the Jayvee attack was Albert Bodolus, who scored three times. For the Midgets, Robert Zeigler caught a pass and went for a touchdown, the conversion being missed.

Fourth touchdown for the Junior Varsity was made by Larry Trego.

LOCAL PAC RALLY —

and fight and vote together to win a war, we can work and fight and vote together" to build a good society.

BETWEEN THOSE two statements, the red-headed Reuther, a sturdy figure in a dark blue suit, spoke with assurance, firmly, pounding on the rostrum for emphasis, sometimes standing back from the microphones to spread his arms freely, his voice almost always raised, holding his audience with a serious talk that took up most of the hour and with a few occasional stories that took up a few minutes.

Reuther, almost expressionless during the early part of the program, let himself go during his talk, and ten minutes before its end removed his coat as the audience applauded.

He told his listeners to judge politicians, not by their statements before elections, but on their records.

"Look at their records, based on the needs of your people, your country and the world, because they're all tied together."

The labor leader then launched into a comparison of party records.

On foreign policy, he said, the basic records of Republican Senator Robert Taft, of Ohio, Republican Representative Samuel K. McConnell Jr., of Montgomery county, and of American Labor Party Vito Marcantonio, of New York, were the same.

Branding Marcantonio "a Communist," Reuther declared, "In a crisis, you always find the forces of the extreme right and the extreme left ganging up against the democratic middle."

Pennsylvania Governor James H. Duff, running for the U. S. Senate, will work with Taft, Reuther asserted, and warned that to follow the Taft policy "will mean catastrophe for the people of America, and for liberty throughout the world."

REUTHER SAID that Congress Republicans and Dixiecrats blocked aid to South Korea the past January. "Their negativeness, their obstructionism have aided and encouraged Communism all over the world."

Reuther condemned Congress for raising taxes on wages without levying an excess profits tax. "It's nothing short of scandalous that while men are dying for freedom in Korea," he said, "we are allowing profiteers to make money out of war."

The fight against Communism, Reuther said, cannot be won only "by guns and slogans." Only by relieving hunger and poverty, the things that Communism feeds on, can democracy win, he declared.

The CIO executive summarized, "We'll fight against Communism on the battlefront and we'll fight profiteering on the home front."

HE EMPHASIZED the need to fight for social progress in this country, and repeated that laws like the Taft-Hartley bill would not stop labor from making progress.

"As long as these things are wrong, the people in America are going to fight, law or no law," he asserted. Sarcastically, he noted that Republicans always have maintained "doing something for the people is Socialism; doing something for small groups is good business."

He ended with a plea for peaceful and progressive expenditures (citing Federal aid to education and Social Security) at a small fraction of the costs of war.

MUSMANNO, THE first speaker, also put considerable energy into his 35-minute talk. He praised labor as "the architect of the greatness of America," and warned that if the Republicans win the election, the nation would enter a depression.

He, too, pointed out that legislation like the Federal insurance on savings accounts, Social Security and housing were labeled "socialistic" by Republicans in the early days of the New Deal, "and now are taken as a matter of course."

Musmanno warned that the Republicans want to "go back to 1900, to go back to the days of the high tariff, to go back to the coal and iron police strike-breakers."

Calling for support of local candidates, Musmanno told the audience, "Bring Montgomery county back into Pennsylvania; bring Pennsylvania back into the United States."

Both Reuther and Musmanno were introduced by Robert B. Conner, chairman for the meeting. Conner is PAC chairman for Montgomery county and president of Spicer Local 644, United Auto Workers (CIO).

Conner was introduced at the opening of the meeting by Harry B. Travis, president of the Montgomery County CIO council.

UNION OFFICIALS and candidates for political office also were on the stage of the auditorium.

In addition to Conner and Travis, on the stage were Curtis B. Miller, borough PAC chairman; J. Alfred Marquet, president of Bethlehem Steel Local 2177, United Steelworkers of America (CIO) and district officials.

This group included Morris Riger, assistant regional director of the Textile Workers Union of America (CIO); Samuel Frost, TWUA international representative; Fred Howard, United Rubber Workers (CIO) international representative; Martin Gerber, UAW District 9 director, and Melvin Keiser and Frank Kirsch, of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers (CIO).

Candidates included Marquet, for Assemblyman from the Third district, and Leon C. MacMullen, running for Congress.

Reuther drove to Pottstown from Philadelphia and returned there shortly after the meeting ended. Musmanno came here by automobile from Norristown, where he spoke earlier yesterday, and continued to campaign in Carbon county.

Stowe Pupils to Tour Courthouse Monday

Approximately 60 students of the West Pottsgrove Township High school under the direction of Miss Jessie H. Rosenberry and Miss Annette Keefer will make an all-day tour of the Montgomery county courthouse Monday.

The Montgomery Bar association, with the consent of all of the judges of the Montgomery county courts, is making available to Senior high schools a service to teachers and students in conducting them on a tour of the offices of the courthouse.

At the opening of court, Attorney Walton Coates, appointed by the Bar association to conduct the tour, will introduce the teachers to Judge Harold G. Knight, and the court will then explain to the students the important roll played by the local court in our democratic process.

The bar Association also has arranged with the recorder of deeds, register of wills, prothonotary, sheriff, district attorney, clerk of courts, county commissioners, and law librarian, to explain to the students the functions and duties of their particular offices.

the house, where he learned that Donmoyer had moved several months ago—exactly where, nobody seemed to know.

The two policemen managed to learn that Donmoyer worked at U. S. Axle company's plant and contacted him there. Donmoyer gave them the new address—247 High stret. Rhoads went there and had Mrs. Donmoyer come for the car.

On the parking lot, six borough workmen, using a big motorized scraper, a compressor to drive the pneumatic drills for breaking cement and a roller, worked on the job during the day. Runyan said the lot should be ready for macadam next week.

The borough purchased the opera house and had the old building torn down this Summer.

Recently Wedded Women Can Still Change Registration for Voting, Registrar Says

Montgomery county women who have been married recently may still have time to change their registration to be eligible for the Nov. 7 election, it was announced yesterday by Kenneth Hallman, registrar for the county.

For other groups, the deadline passed Sept. 16, he said, disposing of such beliefs as that unregistered 21-year-olds could "vote on age."

The newly-wed women who can change their registration from, say, Miss Jones to Mrs. Smith, to be eligible for this election are those who have not moved to a different voting district, Hallman explained.

Newly-wed women who have moved to a different voting district could not become eligible for this election.

The same distinction applies on other changes of address. Those moving within a district can have their registration record changed for this election. Those moving from one district to another can tell the registration commission about the change, but it won't go into effect for this election.

ALTHOUGH MANY older people think so, Hallman said, 21-year-olds cannot vote "on age." He said they could have registered on age—that is, have told registrars that they would be 21 between the registration deadline and election day—but this opportunity ended Sept. 16.

Those called to active military service can ask for registration by mail, and are the only people who can register by mail. But so far, Hallman continued, the State legislature has made no provision for absentee balloting.

He pointed out that it took several years during World War II to set up the complicated machinery for absentee balloting, and the provision ended a short time after the end of hostilities.

Although figures on registration for Pottstown and for the county will not be available until next week, Hallman said that work so far has revealed that the increase in registration for the county would be about 9000, pushing the total toward 166,000.

County Boosts Salaries Of Institution District

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, Oct. 11 — Employes of the Institution district, of Montgomery county, were granted cost-of-living salary increases in accordance with the program adopted for other county employes, it was disclosed today.

Employes of the district, who are located in the court house, were given raises of $240, if they received under $3000 a year and $180, if they received $3000 and over a year.

Employes at the District home, Black Rock, were given varying increases, based on the amount of maintenance they received. Those, who are given full maintenance, were given increases of $60 a year, with the other amounts varying to $240 a year.

Approximately 55 employes of the Institution district were affected.

Church Faith Seen Vital In Safeguard of Future

Faith in the church would be one of the major factors in the preservation of our way of living in the future, George C. Lowe, ex-president of the State Federation of Christian Endeavor, told the Pottstown Kiwanis club Tuesday night at its meeting in the Elks' club.

Lowe, who is director of traffic safety for a major oil company, reminded his audience of 65 that Communist Russia is opposed to and afraid of the church. Russia attempted to destroy the church, he pointd out.

After defining "Church Loyalty," his topic for the evening, the speaker asserted that "we all want to belong to the church, but don't do too much about it."

Carson Potter, president, presided at the session.

St. Peters Baptist Plans Services for 36th Anniversary

Special services to mark the 36th anniversary of St. Peters Baptist church will open tonight.

The anniversary observance will reach its climax on Sunday when the Rev. Henry Laube, of the Southern Baptist convention, will preach at the 10 a. m. service.

Tonight's service at the Chester county church will feature a talk by the Rev. John Crouthamel Jr., of the Fleishmann Memorial Baptist church. The Ambassadors Gospel team of Philadelphia will provide instrumental and vocal music. The service will start at 8 o'clock.

The service will be repeated tomorrow night, with the Rev. Samuel Laube, of New York, as the speaker.

SUNDAY'S MORNING service also will include vocal selections by Miss Ruth Bloom, of Conshohocken. Rally Day also will be observed.

On Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the Rev. M. M. Smith, of the Central Union Baptist association, will bring the message. In the evening, the Young People's society will meet at 7 o'clock and the evening gospel hour will be conducted at 7:45 o'clock, with the Rev. Appel preaching and the Gospel Team providing the music.

Dinner and supper will be served at the church for those attending the service.

The Rev. John W. Sandiford, pastor, has extended an invitation to the public to attend the services.

Virginia Man Pleads Guilty to Open Lewdness

James Cave, 28-year-old Luray, Va., man, pleaded guilty to a charge of open lewdness yesterday afternoon at a hearing before Justice of the Peace Raymond C. Kelley, of the Second ward.

He will be committed to the Montgomery county jail today in default of $500 bail.

Cave was arrested by Sgt. Thomas A. Lawler and Patrolman Robert Houser late Tuesday afternoon an hour after he exposed himself to a 13-year-old Junior High school girl.

Lawler and the girl both testified at the hearing, with Houser corroborating the police sergeant's testimony. Under questioning by Kelley, Cave admitted the testimony was true.

He said nothing further in his own behalf, indicating he would throw himself upon the mercy of the court. Kelley ordered him held for court.

Time to get those summer kinks out of your Buick!

THERE'S a change of the year for your Buick, too, stalwart as it is! Hot summer driving has taken its toll—in played-out lubricants, spark timing that may have slipped off a notch or two over the many miles, a carburetor that would probably give you better mileage and snap if it were properly adjusted now for fall driving.

Point is—your Buick will feel a lot friskier in the trying days to come if you let your Buick dealer get those summer kinks out of its system now! Just drive in—say you want (1) a fall tune-up and (2) a regular Lubricare—and see how much rewarded you are, for a small fee!

Do it this week, will you? Before the rush, you can be served more promptly.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11 (AP)—Senate crime probers began hearings here today and claimed to have uncovered a link between New Jersey gamblers and fellow-operators in New York's plush Saratoga county.

Parents Entertained By Scout Troop 5

Movies and a scout stunt provided entertainment at a "Parents Night" celebration of Boy Scout Troop 5, Zion's Reformed church, Monday night at the church.

The stunt involved four scouts on their hands and knees under a blanket. They signified a car. As another scout "drove" the contraption, collapsing members of the quartet indicated flattening tires.

The movies treated basketball, nature and comics.

Introduced at the affair was Wesley Nichols, new scoutmaster, who replaces Jack Eck in the post. Harold Casselberry, chairman of the troop committee, made the introduction.

Harry Shellenberger, district commissioner, and William Glenney, neighborhood commissioner, conducted roll call and uniform inspection.

Mrs. Harry Bernhart Sr., chairman of the Mothers auxiliary of the troop, introduced members of her group, who also furnished refreshments for the affair. About 50 persons attended.

U. S. Blasts Forward In Drive on Capital; South Koreans Gain

TOKYO, Thursday, Oct. 12 (AP)—U. S. Eighth Army forces advanced deeper into North Korea today along a curving 135-mile front after wresting a key defense triangle from fiercely resisting Reds.

Eighth Army headquarters announced that Southern Korean troops near the center of the line captured the highway and railway hubs of Kumwha, Chorwon and Pyonggang. The Republic's soldiers pressed on northward this morning from their point of deepest penetration—Pyonggang, 28 miles above the 38th parallel.

Near the west end of the line, tank-supported American troops punched 12 miles into North Korea beyond the parallel to within 75 miles of the Red capital of Pyongyang.

At the east end of the line, South Korean troops which captured the port of Wonsan fought a mile westward to within less than 95 miles of Pyongyang.

Forces at all three points of the line reported stiff Red opposition.

THE REDS HAD been expected to hold the Pyonggang-Kumwha-Chorwon triangle at any cost. Ever since the Reds were ousted from war-wrecked Seoul and driven across the 38th, reports had been received that they were concentrating forces at Chorwon.

Chorwon, 16 miles north of the 38th and 65 miles southwest of Wonsan, is the left base of the triangle. The right base is Kumwha, 20 miles north of the parallel and 62 miles almost due south of Wonsan. Pyonggang, the apex of the triangle, is 28 miles north of the parallel and 50 miles southwest of Wonsan.

U. S. officers said the South Korean Sixth division took the towns in almost blitzkreig fashion despite the bitter opposition.

U. S. officers doubted if the Reds had enough men and guns to check the march on Pyongyang.

Roads leading up from U. S. bases in South Korea were jammed with vehicles, guns, tanks and troops.

U. S. Eighth Army headquarters reported the right flank of the attack had rolled two miles north of Yuga, a village ten miles north of the 38th parallel.

Rosselini Slaps Suit On Senator Johnson For Alleged Slander

ROME, Oct. 11 (AP) — Roberto Rosselini said today Sen. Edwin C. Johnson had called him a scoundrel. He sued the Colorado Democrat for slander.

The Italian film director said Johnson used the term at a cocktail party here last night, in the presence of five Italian journalists. Johnson left Rome about the time the suit was filed. He said later in Paris he could not recall discussing Rosselini at the party.

Rosselini Roberto

Johnson the past March described Rosselini as a former Nazi collaborator, a black market operator and a notorious cocaine addict. Those descriptions were made a part of the record of the U. S. Senate, and so were legally immune from suit.

Johnson said then "I want the American public to understand clearly what type of individuals are making pictures for them." Rosselini's comment at that time was that "such statements speak for themselves."

Rosselini is the husband of actress Ingrid Bergman. His attorney, Giulano Vassalli, said the suit can be tried even though Johnson is not in Italy. In such actions, damages, if any, are fixed by the court.

Johnson has been visiting various European capitals on a tour sponsored by an American airline.

U. S. Steel Agrees To USW Parleys

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 11 (AP)—Industry leader United States Steel consented today to negotiations with the CIO United Steel Workers on the big union's wage increase demands but refused to discuss any other issues.

USW Secretary Treasurer David J. McDonald received notification that "Big Steel" will meet with union bargaining teams in Pittsburgh next Monday.

Similar wage talks are under way with some 35 other smaller steel companies. The union asked 1400 steel firms to advance the wage clause reopening date from Nov. 1 to Oct. 9 "in the national interest."

President Philip Murray of both the CIO and the USW said his million USW members need "a very healthy and substantial wage increase" to meet higher living costs.

Casualties of War Revealed at 24,163

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11 (AP)—Announced casualties in the Korean war rose to 24,163 today—an increase of 3407 in a week.

The total announced by the Defense department covers those whose next of kin had been notified through Oct. 6.

It included 3614 deaths, 16,289 non-fatally wounded and 4260 missing in action.

Of those listed as missing, the department said, 311 have since returned to United Nations military units and 107 have been reported captured or interned by the enemy. This leaves 3842 still missing as of Oct. 6.

For the Army, the Defense department reported 3134 deaths, 14,497 non-fatal wounded and 4110 missing.

Marine corps deaths for the period were placed at 399, non-fatal wounded at 1710, and missing at 18.

Soviet Peace Plans Get Okay From U. S.

LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 11 (AP)—The United States today accepted in principle Soviet proposals calling for five-power consultations on maintaining peace and for a speed up of measures to set up an international army. But the Americans made it plain that these two steps are provided for in the United Nations charter and should have been taken long ago.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky formally presented two resolutions to the U. N. assembly's 60-nation political committee. One recommended that, until the international army is created, the five powers—France, China, Britain, United States and Russia—should consult on joint action for maintaining international peace and security.

The second resolution recommends that the Security council decide on measures for the rapid creation of the international armed force provided for in the U. N. charter and for the effective operation of the military staff committee.

While accepting these two proposals, an American spokesman said the ideas contained in them might be written into the preamble of a seven-power resolution containing Secretary of State Acheson's program against aggression.

THIS RESOLUTION now is being debated in the political committee and the seven-power plan sponsors are considering revisions which would meet several points raised by various speakers but would not take away any essential part.

Lester B. Pearson, Canadian foreign minister, who backed the seven-power plan in a strong speech today, told the committee earlier that the Russians should back up claims of peaceful intentions by actual peaceful deeds.

Carlos P. Romulo, foreign minister of the Philippines and former assembly president, suggested a time limit on any big five negotiations so that the General assembly could act if the major powers cannot get together.

Window-Busting Spree Sends Glazier to Jug

TEANECK, N. J. Oct. 11 (AP) — Police came up with an explanation today for a wave of broken auto windshields—the big, sweeping kind that cost $75 for replacement. They arrested the local glazier on a malicious mischief charge.

Police said the glazier, Frank C. Gerbolini, admitted he made the rounds in his car, drumming up business for himself with a slingshot.

Pacific-Bound Truman Sets Down in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 11 (AP)—President Truman stopped over here tonight to honor his only sister at ceremonies overshadowed by his prospective weekend conference in the Pacific with Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

White House officials continued to keep the meeting place a secret but members of the presidential party said they understood Wake Island would be the scene of the history-making rendezvous.

Mr. Truman landed here at 6:37 p. m. (Pottstown time) at the end of the first lap of the 6500-mile outward flight.

His sentimental journey here was for the purpose of seeing Miss Mary Jane Truman installed tonight at Kiel auditorium as worthy grand matron of Missouri for the Order of the Eastern Star, a Masonic auxiliary.

MR. TRUMAN, a 33rd Degree Mason, and former grand master of the Missouri lodge, was met at Lambert-St. Louis airport by Mayor Joseph M. Darst, James P. Finnegan, internal revenue collector here, and Secretary of Labor Tobin, who was already in St. Louis for a speech.

The President will remain over for an Eastern Star luncheon tomorrow and take off again at 4 p. m. on the next lap of a grueling journey, two hours earlier than previously planned.

With Mr. Truman aboard the Independence were members of his official family and former Governor Mon C. Wallgren of Washington.

The whole world speculated on the international and political implications of his mission in which the two men will discuss Korea and other Far Eastern problems.

The earlier departure from St. Louis was decided upon to make sure the President's plane reaches Fairfield-Suisan airport in California around 10 p. m. (Pacific time) Thursday (1 a. m. Pottstown time Friday).

University Instructor Admits Touching Off June Campus Blaze

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 11 (AP)—A scholarly University of Michigan Latin teacher who said he had been "studying hard and not feeling well," admitted today he burned down Haven Hall, a campus landmark, last June.

Robert H. Stacy, 30-year-old teaching fellow from Gowanda, N. Y., was charged with arson. He was jailed in default of $15,000 bond after waiving Municipal court examination in favor of a Circuit court hearing next Tuesday.

Prosecutor Douglas K. Reading said Stacy attempted to leap into a stairwell from the seventh floor of a downtown building after the warrant was signed. Police restrained him.

Stacy, tall and slender, looked worried and confused as he sat through the court hearing. He readily volunteered that "I did it" when Judge Francis O'Brien referred to the fire. Police said Stacy, an overseas veteran of World War II, had been undergoing treatment recently at the Veterans Readjustment center in University hospital here.

Rail Unions to Seek 25-35-Cent Hikes

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11 (AP)—Railroad unions representing more than a million employes formulated demands today for pay increases of 25 to 35 cents an hour.

A railroad spokesman estimated they would add around $600,000,000 a year to the carriers payrolls.

A demand for a 35-cent hourly increase was decided on late in the day by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen for its 85,000 members.

Leaders of the 15 unions in the non-operating branch of the industry had earlier set 25 cents an hour as their goal. They are the signalmen, clerks and other workers not actually engaged in running trains.

The 35-cent proposal by the firemen may also set the pattern for two other operating unions—the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors.

Red Firepower Called Superior To Any in War II

TOKYO, Oct. 11 (AP)—Intelligence officers said today the North Korean army, cut to pieces in South Korea, had a greater firepower in terms of automatic weapons than any armed unit of any nation in World War II.

The full extent of the disaster which overtook the Reds three weeks ago is only beginning to appear as American officers count the mountains of captured guns, ammunition and vehicles.

In that disaster the Reds lost all their heavy equipment which had been moved south in an attempt to drive the United Nations forces into the sea. Nearly all this war booty was Russian made.

"They had enough firepower for a force three times their size by World War II standards," one Intelligence officer said.

Before the U. N. landings at Inchon, 13 Communist divisions—more than 130,000 men—were jammed against the Allied perimeter around Pusan, in Southeastern Korea.

Then on Sept. 15 American troops landed far behind the Communist lines, attacked and took Inchon.

Rice Not Just a Side Order Anymore; Excellent With Trimmings as Main Dish

By GRANNY HIGGINS

Not all the rice from China is eaten side by side with chow mein or chop suey merely because the lack of it would make a Chinese dinner incomplete. This white grain from watery fields has at last attained a fame of its own as a food that is palatable in desserts as well as main dish form and even at the breakfast table.

You've guessed it — rice spoon bread for breakfast. It's an inexpensive (you know how that half cup boils into a pan) nourishing treat. And for a luncheon main dish version here's a tangy combination of seasonings, tomato sauce and bacon, as attractive as it is luscious!

Spanish Rice With Tomatoes

4 strips bacon
1½ cups cooked rice
½ cup thinly sliced onions
2 cups peeled chunks tomatoes (can be canned)
1½ teaspoons salt
1 green pepper
1 teaspoon paprika
1 minced clove garlic
dash of saffron (optional).

To prepare rice put 1 cup of the uncooked ingredient, 1 teaspoon of salt, and 2 cups of cold water in a two-quart saucepan and cover with a tight-fitting lid. Set over a hot flame until it boils 14 minutes, or until all the water is absorbed, leaving the separate rice grains with their full nutritional value. This makes very firm rice grains. If you prefer more tender rice grains, add 1/3 cup more water for each cup of uncooked rice used and increase the slow cooking time 4 or 5 minutes. Remove the lid, permit the rice to steam dry to the desired consistency and the grains will be separate and fluffy. Never sair rice; lift rice gently with a fork.

Saute the bacon until brown. Remove the bacon and into the drippings put the rice (which has been cooked). Add the onions; cook 3 minutes; add 2 cups peeled chunks of tomato, the green pepper (cut into strips) salt, paprika, minced garlic and a dash of saffron. Break up the crisp bacon and add to the mixture. Put into a casserole and bake for one hour at 350 F. Serve hot. Six serving.

Rice Spoon Bread

1 cup cooked rice
2 eggs, separated
1 tablespoon butter
1 cup milk
1 cup boiling water
3 tablespoons white cornmeal
2 teaspoons baking powder
¼ cup flour (sifted)
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar

First prepare rice as mentioned above. Pour water over cornmeal and mix; add flour, salt and sugar. Cook in double boiler until thick. Stir in rice and butter. Add the beaten egg yolks, baking powder and milk. Lastly fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into greased baking dish, place in pan containing an inch of hot water and bake in a moderate 350 F oven for approximately 40 minutes (remove the pan of water for the last 15 minutes of baking). The bread may take a few more minutes of baking. Be sure it is done through before removing from oven. Serve hot in the dish in which it is baked immediately as it comes from the oven. Serves 4 to 5 persons.

This column will have a local guest cook and her favorite recipe next time. If you'd like to make a guest appearance, just drop a line to Granny Higgins of The Mercury about your favorite recipe.

New Slate and Plans Are Announced by Reformed Women

Future dates and the slate of officers to be elected in the near future were presented last night by the Women's Guild of St. Paul's Reformed church in the home of Mrs. Edward Heimbach, 181 North Franklin street.

Presiding over the meeting was Mrs. Heimbach, guild president. It was announced that the thank-offering service will be held Nov. 26, with Mrs. John B. Frantz as the guest speaker.

Mrs. Elmer Gross reported on the meeting she attended the past week at Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church in Philadelphia. The group learned that it will take care of altar arrangements for the next year.

Members brought clothing and school articles to be packed into two kits—one for a boy and the other for a girl—which will be sent to the Church World Service center in Webster Groves, Missouri. Ten Ways to Kill Society or Association Given by Mrs. Cannell at Meeting of PTA

New parents and teachers had a chance to become acquainted last night when the Central Parent Teacher association met for the first time this season in the Washington schoolhouse.

Mrs. George Cannell, president, was in charge of the meeting. In the place of a speaker, the president told the members ten ways to kill a society or association such as the PTA. She gave the following rules:

"Don't come to the meetings; if you do come, come late; if the weather doesn't suit you, don't think of coming; if you attend a meeting, find fault with the work of the officers and other members; never accept an office, as it is easier to criticize than to do things; nevertheless, feel hurt if you are not appointed on the committee, but if you are, do not attend committee meetings.

"IF ASKED by the chairman to give your opinion on some matter, tell her you have nothing to say, but after the meeting tell everyone how things ought to have been done; do nothing more than is absolutely necessary, but, when members roll up their sleeves and willingly use their ability to help matters along, say that the society is ru by a clique.

"Hold back your dues as long as possible—or don't pay at all; don't bother about getting new members—let someone else do it."

The PTA welcome song was sung by the group accompanied by Mrs. Leonard Donmoyer on the piano. Mrs. Floyd Shaner, acting secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting held in 1949, and Mrs. Gerald Wentzel gave the treasurers' report.

Mrs. Shaner was elected secretary after a motion was made from the floor. The membership drive, which is now in progress, was explained by Mrs. Leroy Bachman, membership chairman.

A REPORT on the City Council of PTA's meeting held the past Monday was given by Mrs. Peter Martin, chairman of the study group of Central PTA, who arranged to have Mrs. Lucile Wade Williams as the speaker.

Mrs. Charles Harberger, magazine chairman, explained the good points about the PTA magazine, and Mrs. Cannell called attention to the new PTA song books which have just been purchased. The members sang a number of songs in the books, led by Mrs. Williams.

The teachers were introduced and presented with corsages. Upon entering, the mothers were given paper oak leaves on which they wrote their names and the grade which their child attended. These were pinned to lapels and blouses in order that new members might become easily acquainted with their fellow members.

Mrs. Cannell urged all parents to send their children to the Clair Tree Major play, "Rip Van Winkle" today in the Pottstown Senior High school. It was reported that the teachers had 100 percent attendance at the meeting. Mrs. Kathryn Myers, first grade teacher, won the attendance award.

Mr. and Mrs. David Emery were appointed attendance chairmen. At the close of the business meeting cider and doughnuts were served by the hospitality committee, Mrs. Walter Grow, and Mrs. Max Creswell, co-chairmen.

Honor Court to Feature Scout Jamboree Slides

Colored slides of the highlights of the 1950 national jamboree at Valley Forge will be presented at a district-wide court of honor in the St. Clair school at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

The slides, which have been arranged in sequence, were taken by four men, Garnet Nye and J. Russell Geiger Jr., neighborhood commissioners, Gene Shellenberger, scoutmaster of Pottstown Troop 4, and Roy Geiger, assistant scoutmaster of Gilbertsville Troop 1.

Parents and friends are invited to view the pictures.

The court will be in charge of John G. Leininger, district advancement chairman. He will be assisted by J. Russell Geiger Sr., court of honor chairman, Harold LeBaron, board of review chairman, and Roy A. Geiger and Magnus Stender, clerks.

Borneman to Speak At Region Scout Session

Camping policies and methods of promoting attendance will be discussed at the Region 3 annual meeting of the Boy Scouts of America by Robert U. Borneman, of Sanatoga, director of camping of the Valley Forge council.

Borneman will leave today to attend the two-day session at Bedford. He will lead roundtable discussions on the two topics as part of his new duties as camping director.

Delegates from 52 councils in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, Washington, D. C., and West Virginia will attend the meeting. It will be brought to a close Saturday afternoon.

Upper Pottsgrove Pupils Given Physical Exams

Complete physical examinations of eight First grade pupils at the Upper Pottsgrove school were made yesterday by Dr. Hayden O. Evans, Pottstown physician, John B. Ferdinand, supervising principal, announced last night.

Mrs. Dorothy Thalmer, school nurse, and Mrs. Paul Geary, clerk, assisted Dr. Evans in the examinations.

Two motion pictures were shown at the school assembly in the afternoon, Ferdinand said.

One film described roller bearing locomotives and trains, while the other covered the manufacture of cement and its uses. Both were used to supplement textbook instruction at the school.

U. S. 'Flying Boxcar' Crashes; Three Killed

TOKYO, Thursday, Oct. 12 (AP)—An Air Force "Flying Boxcar" crashed and burned at a Southern Japan base today killing three airmen and injuring five other persons.

expected to sound the horn when the system is perfected.

* * *

THE SIGNALS FORMERLY were operated by three button switches on the desk panel. Pushed up or down in various combinations, they either made the horn toot, blinked the lights (a signal to the radioless car) or turned the lights on steadily—signal to foot patrolmen.

Elsewhere, borough police electronics are in fair shape. All the 15 call boxes in the borough, except the one at Spruce and Oak streets are in working order.

Police calling from the Spruce and Oak box are audible to the desk sergeant. But the desk sergeant cannot talk back to the patrolman and be heard.

This has not caused an abnormal amount of frustration, however, since the box is not used often, not being on a foot patrol beat.

CIVIC LEAGUE —

an "ugly thing in the world we should strive to the utmost to remove from human society."

The speaker posed the question of why should the white man fear the black man, and the black fear the white?

The black people, he said, see themselves as servants and menial helpers to the whites and fear the latter will "use" them. On the other hand, he continued, the whites fear that their society will be invaded. Thus, people are standing in an attitude of defense and defiance.

AFTER DEFINING prejudice as an opinion without judgement or fact and branding both the Negro and white races as being equally guilty, Dr. Hill warned that the "terror of prejudice" is the teaching in the home.

He offered three illustrations of how the influence of prejudiced parents over their children instilled in them the same reaction.

Dr. Hill elaborated further on prejudice by pointing out that in sections of Pennsylvania, Catholics are prohibited from getting work, while in others no Jew can apply for a position in the school systems.

"We can do something about the color bar," the speaker said, "by starting to overcome our own prejudices."

In touching on another argument of racial tolerance, Dr. Hill ridiculed those who question inter-marriage.

"You don't force people to marry," he said. "Two people won't marry unless they want to. The idea of a Negro wanting to marry a white is foolish. We've got to explode that false idea."

Dr. Hill also cast a new light on the subject of Negro integration into a community.

"We are going to be ourselves," he asserted, "and make contributions to the community by identifying ourselves with the community. Negroes must not complain, but they must organize their intelligence and contribute to the community without regard to race or color."

REFERRING TO the Negroes of Pottstown, Dr. Hill pointed out that there is represented here every kind of excellence in man who must set the pattern and prove their right to equal opportunity.

The major emphasis of the Civic league, he asserted, is the principle of "give me a chance. If I'm not measuring up to the job, if I'm not doing the work right, then pass me over for someone else. But don't deny me the chance."

* * *

IN HIS brief remarks as nominal head of the borough, Burgess Griffith congratulated the group on its formation and its objectives.

He pointed out that the borough government has in its employe several Negroes, including a water department superintendent, a police officer and a Recreation commission worker.

"You have an excellent group of officers," the Burgess said, "I congratulate you upon receiving your charter."

Dr. McCormick pledged his support to the group.

"I was raised on the theory that all human blood is red, regardless of the color of the skin," he said.

IN ANNOUNCING that a volume containing the works of noted Negro authors will be put in the local school system, Dr. McCormick asserted, "We are anxious to give credit where credit is due. I believe that together we can find the answers to some very difficult problems."

The Mercury's general manager also pointed out that the problem of overcoming racial prejudice is one of progressive education.

"We must rely on our younger generation," he said, "for we often find the older generation impervious to reason, tragically undeveloped and steeped in prejudice.

"Your job as the Pottstown Civic league is one of education. We in the newspaper field wish to offer our continued aid. It is a historical proverb that 'in union there is strength.' Union is brotherhood. In racial prejudice there is no brotherhood, there is no union, there is only weakness and ultimate disintegration and the loss of freedom.

"It is your job and mine to guard against this."

DeVRIES, ALSO offering congratulations to the league, spoke of his association with Negro religious groups and praised them and their leaders, with a personal regret for the existence of racial prejudice "in our free country."

After suggesting that perhaps the Negro could find an answer to his own advancement through the establishment of Negro factories and industries, DeVries offered the biblical axiom that "God helps those who help themselves."

In accepting the group's charter from Nelson, who did the legal work without cost to the league, Dr. Lee did so "with a sense of pride and humility. We feel we have accepted a challenge; and as the years go by it is our hope that we may look back and see that we have proved ourselves worthy of the honor accorded us tonight."

Music on the program was by pianists Berwindle Glenn and Elizabeth Wright, baritone David Williams, and saxophonist Kenneth Himes. Miss Fay Gibson offered a recitation.

The seal of the league was presented to the group by Miss Emily C. Corum, daughter of the organization's secretary.

"Cippolino" is the Italian diminutive of "cippola," which means onion. It is the name of an onion-colored green and white asphalt tile in this country.

FIRE ENGINES —

rest of the exhibit included:

Linfield Fire company pumper, Ridge Fire company pumper, three engines of the Empire Hook and Ladder company, four pieces of apparatus from the Philadelphia Steam Fire Engine company, three fire engines and three ambulances from the Good Will Fire company and three fire trucks from West End Fire company, Stowe.

Borough Fire Chief Richard E. Lindauer, resplendent in white-topped cap and double-breasted blue, gold-buttoned suit, said not one piece of fire fighting equipment remained in local fire houses.

A police prowl car, with Patrolman Joseph Thees at the wheel, was stationed at High and Penn streets, however, to receive by radio any fire calls that might have been turned in.

The show drew a wandering crowd along the two blocks, giving an odd Friday-night look to High street. Except for the old Gilbertsville pumper, there were no demonstrations.

SCHOOL HOLIDAY —

Assistant Postmaster Earl W. Riegner announced the post office will continue its regular schedule.

No special programs have been arranged in any of the Pottstown public schools to observe the day. Teachers in the elementary schools have been advised to make special mention of Columbus in their history courses, however.

Pottstown Junior and Senior High school students will have only their regular classwork.

The Rev. John L. Smoker, pastor of Baltzell Evangelical United Brethren church, will speak before the Pottstown Optimist club at 6:30 o'clock in the Clover Leaf restaurant tonight.

The Rev. Smoker will address the group on the life and customs of the Amish people.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

JAMES THURBER, in a reminiscent mood, recalls a young couple named Henderson who lived next door to him in Columbus, Ohio, way back in 1922. One afternoon Mrs. H. called to him in great anxiety, "Please come over. Dan phoned to say he's bringing home a cockeyed Spaniard and I simply won't face both of them alone." "The only Spaniards I know in Columbus," said Thurber reassuringly, "are a dozen students at Ohio State, and I doubt that even they would be cockeyed as early as six o'clock."

When Husband Dan came home, he was carrying the cockeyed Spaniard in his arms, and, as you probably have figured out for yourself, he was, of course, neither cockeyed nor Spanish—just a floppy eared, tiny, affectionate cocker spaniel puppy dog.

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Larger Attendances Reported at YMCA; Schedule Revised

Attendance at the YMCA rooms for the first two nights after re-opening showed 120 present on Monday night, and 125 on Tuesday night.

The groups were about equally divided in the two age units who use the rooms. The largest previous attendance for any one night was 98 during the 1948-49 season.

The popularity of the YMCA Recreation center on East Philadelphia avenue makes it necessary to divide the groups so as to permit all to have an opportunity to use the available games and facilities.

As a result, starting with tonight, the schedule is revised as follows:

Boys and girls of the Seventh and Eighth grades will have use of the rooms from 6 to 8 p. m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, and on Saturday night from 6 to 9 o'clock.

Boys and girls of the grades, up to and including Sixth grade, will have use of the rooms from 6 to 8 p. m. on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. From 8 to 10 o'clock each night, the "Y" will be open to those in the Ninth grade and older.

Henry Carichner, YMCA executive secretary, announced that after the registration period is closed, there will be special activities on certain evenings, in charge of the room supervisors, Mrs. Warren Grofe, Miss Louise Kuntz and Jesse Mercer Jr.

These activities will include educational movies, story hour for younger groups, ping pong tournaments for junior and senior divisions, canasta instruction, classical recordings and hobby demonstrations.

Parents are asked to instruct their children to come directly to and leave directly from the YMCA rooms at the scheduled time.

Midsection of Hill School Line

Streak Broken by Spirit Intact As Hill Girds for Lehigh Frosh

The illusions shattered, Hill School's yearling gridders were at the grindstone this week preparing to face what is expected to be a big, powerful Lehigh Frosh aggregation Saturday on Hill field. And the Blue is counting upon hard work and undimmed spirit to help it forge the first link on another winning chain.

"We forgot to duck" is how Coach Jack Riley explains The Hill's surprising loss to a fired up Woodberry Forest eleven the past Saturday at Alexandria, Va.

Woodberry, in its opener, handed The Hill a 15-0 blanking, shattering a ten-game Hill winning streak that had stretched over parts of three campaigns.

The Virginia team, said Riley, ran a precision split-T formation, and Hill's young and inexperienced team just was not ready to stymie that scheme.

"We just got beat by a team that was better that day," Riley said, adding that the Foresters definitely were ready for the fray and never relaxed their hard-charging attack and defense.

WHAT THE HILL mentor didn't say, however, was that the Blue was equipped with something of an alibi in that Woodberry Forest received a decided break early in the game when it recovered a fumbled punt. That lift gave the Virginians the momentum they needed to bash on to a first period score and Hill never was able to wiggle free of the deficit.

This week, the Blue-Gray faces another split-T running team, or at least that is the expectation of Hill's coaching staff. Hill coaches never scout an opponent, preferring to field their team blind and trust to simply outplaying the foe, but the Lehigh varsity is a split-T advocate and the formation likely seeps down into Frosh ranks.

If it is a split-T, the Rileymen likely will be much more ready to cope with it and its variations on Saturday. A master strategician, the Blue mentor has been giving the system and defenses designed to stop it a thorough study this week.

Actually, split-T is no puzzle to Riley himself. Immediately after the war, he introduced it to The Hill and employed the system for a time before junking it for the standard T and, even more, the single-wing.

Today, Hill teams line up in T-formation, sometimes run from that formation, but more often shift into single-wing.

FORTUNATELY, EVERY HILL player came through the bruising Woodberry Forest tilt in good physical condition. There likely will be little change in the starting lineup that opened that game.

Captain Lamar Hunt, whose passing game was hampered the past Saturday because his team seldom was in position to risk a pitch, probably will go sooner and more often to the air against Lehigh.

But Hill is not giving up on its ground game simply because it was more or less bottled in rebel land. The Blue rightly figures that Jim Fenstermaker, Dean Leith and Hays Baker, all scooters, can go and go far if they get the proper blocks at the proper moments.

"We expect a very tough game," said Riley.

That will be nothing new for the Blue, which seems to play its peak football when the going is the gummiest.

Dykes Finished With A's? Somebody Should Tell Him

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 11 (AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics, who often work in mysterious ways, are involved in another "who dun it." They'll neither confirm or deny bidding goodbye to Jimmy Dykes, the assistant manager, who hasn't been fired and says he hasn't quit.

It all started with a published story to the effect that Dykes was quitting the A's, but not baseball. He was going to become either a manager or coach of another major league team, the story said. So the owners of the A's were asked:

Has Dykes been fired? Did he quit? Is he included in the clubs' 1951 plans? What's the score on Jimmy?

Vice president Roy Mack declined to say whether Dykes was included in the A's' plans for next year.

Brother Earle Mack said "If he (Dykes) has any other offers he would like to accept, we will not stand in his way."

And finally, president-manager Connie Mack had his say. "I hope Jimmy finds something good, real good. He deserves nothing but the best and if he can improve himself, I'll be happy. He has always been a friend."

Where does that leave Dykes? Well, it's anyone's guess. Here's what Jimmy had to say today before he took off for a little golf at the Torresdale-Frankford Country club.

"I know nothing about all this. I definitely have not quit and don't intend to quit. I'm quite happy coaching at third base for the A's."

* * *

DYKES, STAR third baseman for Connie Mack in the pennant-winning days of 1929, 30, and 31, went to to say that none of the club executives had breathed a word to him about departing.

Added Jimmy:

"I was at Shibe Park all day yesterday. I saw Connie and said hello to him. He never mentioned anything about this to me. I talked to Earle a few days ago. He never indicated anything was up.

"I have no new job in sight. As far as I'm concerned I'm still with the Athletics."

Dykes, who managed the Chicago White Sox for 13 years, said, "I'm not too interested in becoming a manager again, at least not unless it's a pennant contending ball club. I've had enough sleepless nights with second division teams. I'm too old for that stuff now."

Jimmy, famous for his arguments with big league umpires, admitted that from what he had read in the papers, "It looks like my days are numbered at Shibe Park. But they'll have to tell me before I believe it."

"New Babe Ruth" Signs Phil Pact For Love, 40 G's

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 11 (AP)—The most sought-after college baseball player in America was signed by the Philadelphia Phillies today—for a $40,000 bonus and "because he loves the Phillies."

Nathan (Babe) Alexander, genial publicist of the National League champions, disclosed that the Phils paid young Tom Casagrande the second highest bonus in the club's history. He said scouts rate the kid a potential "Babe Ruth."

Casagrande is a 20-year-old left-handed pitcher who also hits the ball a country mile. Ten major league clubs fell all over each other trying to sign him.

According to Alexander, major league scouts were more plentiful at Fordham university baseball practice sessions and games than students in recent months. "They all wanted the kid in the worst way."

"Why when he worked out in St. Louis, 20 members of the St. Louis Cardinal organization watched him in action. The New York Yankees, Boston Braves, New York Giants, Cincinnati Reds, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago Cubs and Boston Red Sox all tried to grab him.

"But we got him." And Babe grinned like a cat who just caught himself a dozen mice.

Stowe Oldtimers Set Banquet Date

Jan. 20, 1951, was the date tentatively set for the annual Stowe Oldtimers banquet at a meeting of the banquet committee recently, it was announced by publicity chairman Eddie McEvoy.

McEvoy said that the date is subject to change according to the availability of major league guests. The committee meets again Sunday at the West End Fire company.

Baltimore Colts Buy Negro Player

BALTIMORE, Oct. 11 (AP)—Art Fletcher, an end, was bought today by the Colts of the National football league and will be the first Negro to play on a professional sports team in Baltimore.

The Giant end was purchased for an unannounced sum from the Los Angeles Rams.

UAW Ball Dinner Tonite

It will be free chow and party praise for UAW's City league baseball champs tonight when the union fetes the Workers at a testimonial banquet in the Orioles home.

UAW's carefully-blended team of rookies and seasoned veterans skipped easily through the CIL's seasonal play, then ripped up tradition in besting the Amvets and Flagg's in Shaughnessy playoffs to become double champions of the league.

It took fine play by a crop of rookies, including Homer Royer, ex-Pottstown High hurler who tossed three winners in three series starts after compiling a 4-1 record in league play, to help the Workers to the title. And it took a heap of fine hitting by UAW's veteran infield, probably the best-balanced inner defense in the league.

Tonight the team will be given maroon and gray jackets, gold baseballs and a trophy for their unprecedented sweep. Manager Pop Meyers will present the jackets while Mush Bechtel, league commissioner, will award the trophy and league director Gene Kauler the gold trinkets.

Also on hand will be other league and union officials.

Trojan Cagers Add Kutztown

Kutztown High's state Class B basketball champions have been added to the Pottstown High court schedule for the coming year and, of all places, at the head end.

The Trojans will meet the strong Berks county team in an opening game on the home court early in December.

In addition to Kutztown, the Trojans will meet the Eastern Class A kingpins from Swoyersville. That game will be played later in the program.

Coach Ed Good has had his courtsters—those of them who are not playing football—working out at the Junior High gym occasionally for the past several weeks. Daily practices are carded to commence about the first of November.

Improved Line Play a Trojan Must

It will take a tremendous effort on the part of Pottstown High's inexperienced line along with a better running game if the Trojans are to upset unbeaten Phoenixville High Saturday afternoon at Franklin field. That is the opinion of the Trojan coaching staff, which holds out only faint hope that the local schoolboys are capable of the job.

The return of Tom Pollick and Dick Weiser notwithstanding, Pottstown's line cannot be looked upon as one of the best. There are too many extenuating circumstances.

Especially at the guard slots, so important to effective pass protection, are the Trojans shaky. Herbie White, a solidly good end reserve in 1949 still is going through the process of learning the inner workings of guard play. And mate Willie Walton lacks the weight for slam-bang blocking effectiveness.

Weiser's return should help a great deal in off-guard quick-openers since the center is a key blocker in T-formation plays. Walton and White have had to get their help from inexperienced men all season what with Weiser nursing a fractured ankle over the first three games.

TACKLERS GEORGE CISICK and Harry Hausmann, with able assistance from Bob Sutton figure to hold their own in any sort of competition and the wing positions for the moment are sturdy enough.

With sharper blocking, Coach Heeb Meyers and his cohorts feel that somebody among the many halfback candidates should find running room against the Phantoms.

Walt Nixon was moved into the left halfback post apparently to stay yesterday after Meyers had given the big Junior High graduate an hour of skull drilling on halfback plays.

"More offensive work should perk up Nixon," Meyers said yesterday, "and I believe he will do us some good."

Nixon formerly had been used as defensive halfback and sub for fullback Sam Green offensively, a job that required and returned little action.

PHOENIXVILLE COACHES, meanwhile, were carrying on a campaign against head-swelling and complacency. The Phantoms might be prone to take Pottstown lightly after decisive victories over West Chester and Downingtown on successive Saturdays, but head Coach John Hubicsak certainly is not.

Yesterday the Phantom mentor warned his team that it was in for a tough skirmish Saturday, then ran it through heavy scrimmage drills to hammer home his point.

All the regular Phantoms are reported in tiptop shape for the clash, while several reserves who were pressed into service the past Saturday against Downington are making bids to displace members of the first eleven.

Phoenixville will rely chiefly on an Andy Yednock-Bill Callahan pass attack and the running of shifty George Bracelin. Callahan caught the pass that beat the Trojans in 1949.

Gabelsville Owls to Test Strong Camden Bear Team

Their confidence bolstered by a hard-won 13-9 triumph over the Columbia Lions last week, Gabelsville's Owls are girding this week for the invasion of the Camden Bears, one of South Jersey's top independent football aggregations.

The Owls were dumped, 6-0, by the Allentown Scholastics their 1950 debut in a game that surprised the Gabelsville unit out of its complacency and into a serious practice grind. That diligence paid off for Coach Truck Yentsch's charges the next week when they reversed the strong Harrisburg Eagles, 12-0, at Middletown.

Then on the past Sunday, when the Owls turned on the power to down a Columbia team that had not been topped over the past three years, they earned the ranking as the area's top independent combination.

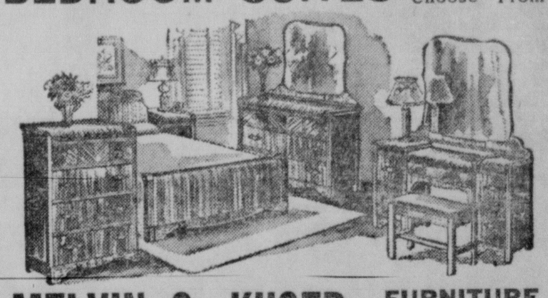

* * *

SUNDAY, WHEN the Yentschmen go against Camden on the Owl field, they will depend a great deal upon the slippery-hipped running of Paul Axsmith and the passing arm of slender Joe Pollick. Both ex-PHS athletes have proven their mettle in independent play.

Pollick generaly concentrates his overhead game on end Claude Reinhart, giant ex-Bethlehem Bulldog pro, who also did undergraduate football chores under the Trojan banner.

Yentsch has announced that the team will hold intensive practice sessions tonight and tomorrow in preparation for the Sunday test. It will be the first of four straight home games for the Owls.

Dickinson Hones Passing Attack For Bruin Test

CARLISLE, Oct. 11—Its passing attack was stressed today as the Dickinson College eleven scrimmages in the mud in preparation for Ursinus on Saturday at Collegeville.

Coach Frank Maze sought to bolster the protection for Johnny Mathewson, his star passer and quarterback, who was held to two pass completions in Dickinson's 7-0 loss to F. and M. on Saturday. On five occasion surging forwards trapped Mathewson behind the line.

In Dickinson's opening game with Grove City, Mathewson completed six out of 10 passes and three of them went for touchdowns. He was one of the leading passers in the state last season when he threw eight TD passes and scored five others himself.

Against the big F. and M. team last week Dickinson showed that it has a dangerous attack even though stopped in the air. Wilbur Gobrecht and Clement Jablonski, explosive halfbacks, ripped off 218 yards along the ground in quick-opening plays from the T.

Coach Maze indicated that three injured players will be ready for Ursinus. They are Ed Ermac, senior guard; Ray Phillips, big sophomore tackle, and Dick Relick, star defensive back.

Ursinus Squad Hit by Injury

COLLEGEVILLE, Oct. 11 — A somewhat battered Ursinus College eleven will face a strong Dickinson College team in the second home game of the season on Patterson Field Saturday afternoon. Game time is 2:30 p. m.

Injurie ssustained in the two losses suffered to date will sideline three Bruin squad members for the season. Gene Pascucci, veteran end from Norristown, suffered a cracked ankle bone in the opener against Drexel and Ben Maliken, starting freshman fullback from Bradley Beach, N. J., sustained a torn knee cartilege in the Drexel fray. Last Saturday in the 20-12 loss to Haverford, Bill Fynon, freshman back from Riverside, N. J., came up with a knee injury that will keep him out of the 1950 games. Capt. Don Young's shoulder separation will likely sideline him for several weeks.

Although beaten in both games this season the Ursinus team showed in the Haverford game an offense much improved over that displayed in the inaugural two weeks ago.

Senior Gene Glick, of Philadelphia, playing his first year of football at Ursinus, took over the quarterback post after Young's injury in the second half and rallied the Bear's smartly to push over two tallies. His play calling and passing very likely earned him a starting berth against the Red Devils. The performance of the freshmen, end Dick Sharpe, of Drexel Hill, back Dick Glock, of Maywood, N. J., and tackle John Anderson, of Carlisle, have also earned them serious consideration for first-line berths.

Dickinson will be striving for its second win of the season Saturday having recorded a fairly easy win over Grove City and a 7-0 loss to F. & M. In the series with Ursinus they hold a decided advantage having won 17, lost 9 and tied 5.

Although they outscored their opponents 206 to 161, Bowling Green's 1949 gridders won four games and lost five.

Old Trojan Nemesis

Ex-Phantom Leads NFL Passers

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 11 (AP)—Little Joe Geri—strictly a running and punting halfback in his University of Georgia playing days—couldn't believe it when told he leads the National football league in passing.

The blond chunk of muscle from Phoenixville, made only this surprised comment:

"Well I'll be darned."

Said his boss, Coach Johnny Michelosen of the Pittsburgh Steelers:

"Isn't that something? It's a surprise to me, too."

Geri has compiled an average of 8.07 yards per attempted pass—a new rating system—to shade Harry Gilmer of Washington for the NFL chucking championship.

The 25-year-old veteran of Marine duty in World War II and grid duty in four bowl games has completed 14 passes for 218 yards in 27 tries.

Not only that, the sophomore Steeler star ranks 10th in ground gaining with 185 yards on 40 attempts. And he's eighth in punting with a 40.7 yard average.

"My punting record doesn't surprise me," Geri declared. "That was my specialty at Georgia. And I did pretty well in that department for the Steelers last year."

GERI IS SMALL by pro football standards. He stands five feet, 10 inches and scales around 180. But once he slithers by the enemy forward wall and gets rolling on a running play he uses brute force to bowl through the secondary.

During the Steelers' encounter with Cleveland last Saturday — which the Browns won 30-17—little Joe found himself stymied by his own interference. Geri promptly used his blockers for doormats and ripped off gain after gain.

Unlike most of the name passers he's topped the NFL statistics, Geri is blithely unscientific about his throwing technique.

"I just cock my arm and let her go," he grinned. "Mostly I toss short ones, maybe a jump pass now and then. No long throws."

When Geri first reported to the Steelers after his graduation from Georgia last year, the Pittsburgh publicity men introduced him as "a former teammate of All-America Charley Trippi."

Joe's name soon became known throughout the league, however, as he ran, passed and punted to become one of the top rookies of the year.

Grid Guesses

Trojans, Norco, Ursinus Underdogs; Hill Favored

By JOE MUCH

Some score or more of underdog football teams ripped up the script last Saturday and what their ad libbing did to our forecasting averages was a caution.

Without admitting last weekend's tally, we own up to a dismal full year reading of .760 on 142 right, 46 wrong in three stabs. That represents a 28-point drop, but there must be a bottom somewhere.

With that philosophy before us, let's make another plunge. On the scholastic scene:

PHOENIXVILLE at POTTSTOWN: Take the 1949 situation, reverse it and you have the 1950 setup. Phoenix is winning everything while the Trojans stumble along. An upset is in the air, but our average cannot accommodate wild guessing. Must say Phoenixville.

NORCO at EAST GREENVILLE: No stark runaway, but the crippled Wildcats must go down. East Greenville.

ROYERSFORD at COLLEGEVILLE: Interesting while the Cols hold out but the Ford manpower is too much. Royersford.

SPRING CITY at NETHER-PROVIDENCE: The Pirates have enough for this one. Spring City.

HILL vs. LEHIGH FROSH: The yearling Browns always are tough, but Hill is due to rebound. Close, but the nod goes to Hill.

AND ON THE college front:

MICHIGAN at ARMY: Michigan helped build Army's 22-game streak last year. The Wolverines were unhappy about that one, and will be less delighted this round. Army.

WISCONSIN at IOWA: The Badgers are shooting for the Big Ten title and Iowa is shooting for a rebound. It will be close, but Wisconsin should win.

OKLAHOMA at TEXAS: Probably the day's top battle as Oklahoma risks a 20-plus win streak in the Austin slaughterhouse. This pick is Texas by two touchdowns.

MISSISSIPPI at VANDERBILT: Ole Miss runs like old fury and Vandy passes aplenty. A most interesting rivalry that has a 28-27 win for Ole Miss in the 1949 records. It will be almost as close, for Vanderbilt.

OKLAHOMA AGGIES at SMU: SMU's not No. 2 for nothing. A vote for the Mustangs.

TEMPLE at RUTGERS: The Owls have the stuff, if it is ready, but Rutgers is coming like a house afire. A scoring duel nod to Temple.

DARTMOUTH at PENN: Penn held a good California team to a TD victory and should be able to handle the Green. Penn.

DICKINSON at URSINUS: Vote for Dickinson's platoon team.

Sooner Tackle Voted Lineman Of Week Honors

NEW YORK, Oct. 11 (AP) — Tackle Jim Weatherall of the unbeaten and untied Oklahoma Sooners is the college football Lineman of the Week.

He gained the honor on the vicious blocking and tackling that sparked a last-minute Oklahoma drive against Texas A&M. Oklahoma won 34-28.

The 6 foot 4 inch, 220 pound Weatherall had left the game only a few minutes, sobbing when he missed a try for the extra point that would have tied the score at 28-28.

But he was soon back on the field in his position at tackle and led an aroused Sooner line to the winning touchdown in the final seconds of play.

Altogether Weatherall played approximately 50 minutes, both offensively and defensively.

Bob Ward, Maryland guard, and Chet Gierula, Maryland tackle, both received glowing praise for fine play that helped trounce Michigan State.

Bob Cates, Texas A&M center, similarly was complimented for his performance against Oklahoma.

This week's nominations:

Tackles — Jim Weatherall, Oklahoma; Joe Finnegan, Yale; Jim Jerome, Cornell; Bob Gain, Kentucky; Bill Crockett, Rice; Chet Gierula, Maryland; Pug Pearman, Tennessee and Bill Smith, Indiana.

Ends—Hal Lokovsek, Washington State; Bud Sherrod, Tennessee; Dan Foldberg, Army; Doug Atkins, Tennessee; Harold Riley, Baylor; Frank Fischell, Arkansas; Bob Moorman, Texas Christian; Pete Augsberger, Maryland and Lowell Perry, Michigan.

Centers—Bob Bates, Texas A&M; Irv Holdash, North Carolina, Bob Davis, Tennessee and Bob Gaige, Cornell.

Guards—Les Richter, California; Bob Ward, Maryland, and Ted Daffer, Tennessee.

In Memoriam 3

SCHAFFER — Eva I. In loving memory of a dear mother, who passed away suddenly October 12, 1946.

You bade no one a last farewell,
You said goodbye to none.
Your loving heart had ceased to beat,
Your stay on earth was done.
For all of us you did your best,
May God grant you eternal rest.

Sadly missed by Daughter Sara and Husband Michael and Grandson Jimmy.

SCHAFFER—Eva. In loving memory of a dear mother, who passed away four years ago today.

It is not the tears at the moment shed,
That tell of hearts that are torn,
But the lonely tears of the after years
And remembrances silently borne.

Sadly missed by HELEN, CAROL and SNOOPER

SCHAFFER — Eva. In loving remembrance of a dearly beloved mother, who passed away four years ago today.

Peaceful be thy rest, dear mother,
It is sweet to breathe thy name;
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.

Sadly missed by Daughter Emma and Son-in-law Eddie

TOSTO—Frances Alting. In loving memory of my daughter who passed away one year ago today.

God knows how much we miss her,
Never shall her memory fade,
Loving thoughts shall ever wander,
To the spot where she is laid.

Sadly missed by MOTHER and FAMILY

Welfare Group Told 1039 Are X-Rayed Here in Past Month

The chests of 1039 persons were X-rayed in Pottstown the past week as an anti-tuberculosis precaution, it was announced Tuesday night at a meeting of the Family Welfare society.

The society, the Pottstown Visiting Nurse organization and the Montgomery county Tuberculosis society co-operated in bringing the mobile X-ray unit to the borough.

On Monday, Oct. 2, 496 members of the Junior High school's Ninth grade, members of Senior High school athletic teams and teachers of all local schools were X-rayed at the Junior High school.

The Ninth grade is singled out for checking because at that age — about 15 — that susceptibility to TB begins and is most acute.

One hundred and twenty-four persons at The Hill — all the employes and some of the masters and pupils — were checked.

And on Thursday and Friday 419 persons were X-rayed at the YMCA.

THE CHARGE per (adult) was $1; to school children, 50 cents. For youngsters unable to pay the nominal fee, the Family Welfare supplied the price out of Christmas seal funds. In all, $12 for 24 children was paid out.

Martha B. Shoemaker, executive secretary of the Family Welfare, and Leona V. Smith, head of the Visiting Nurse, helped with clerical duties during the X-raying and also accepted fees.

All the X-ray pictures were sent to the county TB society headquarters in Norristown and then to the Phipps institute, Philadelphia, where they will be read.

Reports on the findings will be mailed to the individuals X-rayed. In cases where infection is spotted, another copy will se sent to the person's family physician.

The actual photos will be sent to the Family Welfare office in the Kulp building, High and Hanover streets, and may be picked up by the subjects of the photos.

Miss Shoemaker, continuing her report, said 14 orders of groceries, 239 quarts of milk, 413 units of clothing, some shoes for school children and five tons of coal were distributed the past month.

Five persons were taken to distant hospitals; one hundred office interviews were granted; 92 calls paid to families; several mental illness cases were helped and two eviction cases were helped, also in September.

Horace Y. Seidel, president, was in charge of the session, attended by seven members.

Convention Preparations Will Be Made by ABC

The American Business club will have no special program at its meeting tonight at 6:45 o'clock in the Elks club.

Members and delegates to the ABC's annual Seventh District convention at Norristown will have a regular business session in preparation for the conclave in Norristown tomorrow and Saturday.

MORGENTHAU INSTALLED

JERUSALEM, Oct. 11 (AP)—Henry Morgenthau, Jr., was officially installed tonight as chairman of the board of governors of Hebrew university.
